

Guide for Beginners

What is WEB HOSTING?

Hosting a website means making a website available to public worldwide. To make your website available on the internet, you have to store it on a computer called web server.

What is a WEB SERVER?

A web server is the computer on which the web pages of your website are stored.

What is a WEB HOST?

Any person or company who owns a server and rents out web space for website hosting can be called the web host.

What services are given by WEB HOSTING COMPANIES?

Space on their servers is sold by a web host. Other services include domain name registration, email hosting services, and SSL certificates etc.

What are the basic features of a WEB HOSTING PLAN?

BANDWIDTH

Bandwidth means the amount of data that a website can transfer over a period of time. It determines the speed of your website. More bandwidth means more speed.

PROGRAMMING SERVICES

The websites hosting packages also let you create web pages with programming languages including HTML, PHP, ASP as well as databases.

Customer Service

Customer support options like those provided through chat, phone and email etc are extremely useful in the event of any technical or other problems related to your website.

UPTIME

Uptime means the percentage of time that a hosting server stays up or running.

DISK SPACE

The amount of storage space provided by web hosting provider. Its needed to store web files composed of text, images, video, audio, etc. Disk space is measured in megabytes.

What are the types of WEB SERVER HOSTING?

Shared server hosting

Cloud server hosting

Dedicated server hosting